DUCKING AROUSES ED HAUSER'S IRE

Ed Hauser, foreman at the Columbian Iron works, was ducked in a pond at the plant Saturday morning because he discharged two employees. He retaliated by shooting H. A. Tapp and firing on two other men. Tapp, with a bullet wound through his body, was removed to Erlanger hospital in Wann's ambulance, and is in a serious condition. Hauser was later arrested at his home by Detectives Marion Perkins and W. C. Smith and arranged bond in the sum of $1,000 for his appearance in police court next Friday. It is understood that it has been the custom of employees at the Columbian Iron works to resort to the ducking operation when a man does anything that does not meet with approval. It is further understood that this practice has caused trouble on more than one occasion.

Hauser objected to the ducking and especially to the laughter of some of the men after he had made his way from the pond to the shop. His revolver was in a pocket of his automobile and he proceeded to use the weapon. There was a wild scamper when the shooting occurred. According to the police, Hauser was one of the men who laughed at the victim of the ducking.

MONEY PARAMOUNT FACTOR IN FINANCES FOR WEEK
New York, Aug. 31.—Money was the paramount factor of the mere active week in the stock market, even the stirring war news being wholly subordinated to that issue.

Previous warnings against speculative use of bank loans were supplemented by the statement of the head of the local money pool, which threatened repressive measures in the form of higher rates.
A few market leaders improved upon the previous week's high records for the year, notably United States Steel and other industrials, also Canadian Pacific and several other high-grade rails.
The vast improvement in the foreign situation was expressed in the strength of exchange on virtually all the countries of the entente powers, remittances to Paris mounting to highest quotations since the middle of 1915.
It was accepted as more than ordinarily significant also that exchange on the neutral countries meanwhile worked steadily in favor of this country with recent political developments in the movement being associated northern Europe and Spain.

Baylor School

Castle on the Tennessee

The Country School for the City Boy

Will Open Its 26th Session September 11

In spite of war conditions, we have a faculty of experienced men, all college graduates. Three have had military training, two of them under government officers, one of them just from a large training camp.

This school has consistently engaged teachers who give their entire time to the school, mingling with the boys at all times, even in the study halls at night. Teachers are not employed simply to come for a few hours. The only exception to this rule is in the case of Rev. W. L. Forsyth, and even he is at the school during all the class periods, except the first two. Mr. Forsyth will have charge of the Bible classes, and also teach History. He is a good Bible scholar, having graduated at Sewanee, and is certain to interest boys, as he believes in manly sports and was himself an ardent football player. He will be willing to aid in coaching in any way he can.

New University of Virginia man, specially proficient in French and Spanish, also has had two years of military training.

New Davidson College man, specially good on Math, has taught for several years and taken post-graduate course.

Mr. Harold Payne will again have charge of Physics and Chemistry, probably the most capable man to be found in this line in any Southern School.

Mr. Young, a Vanderbilt man, will be first assistant this year and be in charge of military. He will teach English.

Large athletic fields, gymnasium and drill grounds, the best, not only in the city, but in the South. Three men able to coach football, to have the regular supervision and advice of two of the best men who ever played on a Southern team.

All of the buildings, including gymnasium, are constructed of the Key-James brick, planned especially for a school with thorough and most improved ventilation, heated with the hot water system throughout. Not a pipe was frozen last winter. Coal for next winter already purchased.

Location and equipment cannot be surpassed. Large airy, chapel overlooking the river, with twenty windows. Eight class rooms with individual arm chairs; size of rooms, 20x20, with three and four windows in each. Real Pennsylvania slate blackboards in each class room. Large Physical and Chemical Laboratories and desks for twenty-four boys to work at the same time. School has its own water and gas plants.

New Infirmary just completed.
Chapel exercises and Scriptural reading and prayer each day, with frequent addresses by prominent men.

Nearly three hundred Baylor boys and teachers have answered the call to the Colors.

It is easy to make exaggerated statements and boast, and all we ask is a personal inspection and a comparison with other schools to prove conclusively that the Baylor School is not surpassed by any Southern school in location, buildings, equipment, athletic fields and drill grounds, experienced faculty, class of boys and discipline. Splendid new road for autos, or take Signal Mountain cars and get off at Baylor School.

Telephone or write for catalogue. Personal interview can be arranged. Telephone Main 951. Don't fail to visit the school.

JOHN ROY BAYLOR, Head-Master.
